

Getting Started

The following Getting Started Guides cover the main RescueGroups.org services and should get you using your new service right away. Whether you are new to our services or you've just added a service, these Getting Started Guides should help you jump right in. You can absolutely do this! And we'll show you how easy it is to start. If you run into any problems, send us a note at:

<https://support.rescuegroups.org/>

We're behind you all the way.
