Exporting information from data tables

Exporting data from a data table can be useful in many ways, for instance for creating a mailing list.

On this page:

- How to export data from a data table view

How to export data from a data table view

To export the data from a data table:

1. Click Options.
2. Select an export format.

> ✅ CSV is a comma separated value data document which can be opened in a spreadsheet program.

Popular Questions

> We can't find any questions. Check the topic exists.

Have a question about this topic?