_Opening_your_website_to_work_on_it_Content_v1

Work with two browser tabs

One easy way to work on your website site using the management interface then view the changes on your website is to work with two browser windows or tabs open. You can refresh your view of your website to see the changes. See the chapter Using browser tabs to view changes in your website as you work.