

Using a Google web font Intro v1

You can use custom web fonts such as the Google web fonts, for your website content.

Using custom web fonts can increase the download time of your web pages.

We recommend limiting custom fonts to no more than two fonts.

For example, you may want to choose a custom body font, and a different font for headings, and page titles.